Fox Appointed To Defend Him

Silva Arraigned In Wife's Slaying

By DICK GOULD
OF THE TIMES STAFF.
A startling news in the right cheek was the only indication of nervousness shown by Walter William Silva today when he was arraigned in Wisconsin Circuit Court for the first degree murder of his estranged wife.

Mr. Fox, as the lawyer entered the courtroom, said he had no money of his own to hire counsel and would accept whatever the court appointed. Impeccably dressed in a light blue summer-weight suit, Silva, who might easily have been mistaken for one of the many attorneys who lined the chairs in the courtroom, said that he had since learned that the law requires that he be represented by a lawyer.

No date was set for Silva's trial. Criminal trials will begin in circuit court Monday at 9 a.m. Others arraigned during the proceedings included the indicted husband of Mrs. Wright, charged with the slaying of his wife, Mrs. Wright, breaking and entering and larceny; and Robert J. Wilson against whom were Vera Whittington and Frances Blake, respectively.

Two Explosions; 63 Die

FBI Probes Air Crash

By DORMAN CORDELL
TELL CITY, Ind. (AP) — A charred crater in a sandy field. A blackened wing. Two bodies of 12 persons. And an open prayer book: "Lord have mercy on us, Christ have mercy on us..."

"I heard the explosion after it hit the ground," said a farmer, Cyril Powers. "The concussion nearly knocked me down." Said another farmer, Thaddeus Wilson: "The explosion on the ground shook my house. Parts of the fuselage, mail, bodies and debris of all kinds were scattered over the area."

Dorchester Oystermen Are Mollified By Byrd

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Dorchester County oystermen were assured yesterday the "Golden Water" Commission is not going to restrict the transplanting of oysters from a polluted portion of the upper Choptank River.

Byrd also fielded some questions of the worried watermen at the two-hour meeting. He said that while some oysters had been found to be contaminated, the vast majority were safe to eat.
