

Aroused Canucks Deliver for Blake

MONTREAL, April 17 (P)—Coach Hector "Toe" Blake's fiery "go get 'em" brand of hockey has paid off again or the Montreal Canadiens—they're Stanley Cup champions of the National Hockey first Montreal goal late in the wild opening period and the others were rammed into the nets by Dickie Moore, Bernie "Boom Boom" Geoffrion, Don Marshall and Floyd Curry. Boston's goal

STRATEGY HUDDLE . . .

Twisox Skipper Joe Hauser (left) and Andy Cohen, ex-Eau Claire manager now with Indianapolis, put their heads together during a training lull at the Duluth-Superior camp in Hollywood, Fla. Think they're discussing a red-hot hitting prospect or the latest technique employed on a pick-off play? Nope — they're talking about bridge.—(News-Tribune sport-shot.)
