Fullmer Seeks Okay for Fight

WEST JORDAN, Utah (AP) — Manager Marv Jenson said yesterday doctors will determine tomorrow whether former middleweight champion Gene Fullmer can go through with a 10-round fight against Germany's Franz Szuzina July 30. Fullmer, who had both his eyes cut last week in winning a decision over Jim Hegerle, St. Paul, will have the stitches removed Monday.

which included Herry Davis of Charleston, Barry Latman of Indianapolis, Ted Bowsfield and Bill Monbouquette of Minneapolis, Bob Darnell of St. Paul and Juan Pizarro and Red Murff of Wichita.

The all-star skipper selected Third Baseman Ben Valenzuela, Centerfielder Bobby Gene Smith and Shortstop Lee Tate from Omaha; Second Baseman Casey Wise from Wichita; Rightfielder John Callison from Indianapolis; Catcher E. Sadowski from Minneapolis, and Leftfielder Willie Tasby and First Baseman Bob Hale from Louisville to round out his squad.

League President Ed Doherty named Sports Writers Frank Haraway of the Denver Post and Chet Nelson of the Rocky Mountain News as official scorers.

Bears Manager Andy Cohen had not picked his squad.
