Jose Lizondro, a speedy right-hander from Puerto, Armuelles, Panama, will get the call today at 7:45 p. m. as Duluth-Superior's White Sox seek to take a second game over third-place Fargo-Moorhead in a Northern League tussle at Wade Stadium.

The Twisox have battled their way into a fourth-place tie in the Northern League standings with a 3-5 record. The Twisox could creep within a game of the Twins, who are 5-3, with a victory tonight, and could deadlock them with a sweep of the three-game series.

Last night the Twisox backed up Denny Higgins' 10-hit hurling with a 15-hit onslaught good for a 9-4 victory over the Twins.

Lizondro will face Horace (Doully) Womock, another right-hander who already has chalked up two victories this season. Lizondro has pitched just $\frac{2}{3}$ of an inning and hasn't figured in a decision.

Jose started baseball when he was about 8 years old and began winning acclaim when he was just 9. He was chosen the outstanding grade school pitcher while hurling for Blanco grade school. Jose compiled a 6-1 record and hurled a one-hitter and two-hitter in what corresponds to our Little League.

Lizondro played amateur ball when he was 15 and 16 and turned to pro ball at 17. He notched 7-2 and 6-3 marks as an amateur with a team known as Guardia Nacional in the amateur league. In the two years, he hurled four shutouts.

When Jose was 17, he began hurling in the Panama League for the Chesterfields. He again posted a winning mark with a 4-2 record and a thrilling 1-0 pitchers' duel victory to his credit.

For the same team the following year he was 3-3.

It was when Jose was playing in this league that White Sox Scout Andy Cohen noticed him and signed him in 1957. Lizondro notched a respectable 11-6 record his first year with Dubuque and had a no-hit, no-run game against Decatur. Twisox Manager George Noga piloted that club when Jose was hurling.

His second year, Jose had an 8-6 mark with a well-pitched 2-0 shutout of Michigan City.

Last night, all the Twisoxers had their hitting clothes on; everyone who played got at least one hit for the victors. Center Fielder Paul Higgs and Right Fielder Shot Johnston provided most of the punch with three hits apiece. Higgs came through at the right times, too, with four RBIs to his credit.

Four seemed to be the lucky number for the Twisox last night. They boomed across four runs on four hits in the first inning, then got four more on four hits in the fourth to clinch it.

Higgins was very effective with his fast ball and sharp breaking curve. The Twins got to him to cause any damage in only two innings. In the fourth, they garnered two runs on a trio of hits and they did the same on a like number of hits in the ninth.

Otherwise, Higgins rationed out no more than one hit an inning. He fanned eight and walked five.

Fritz Heiss jumped his average to .481 with a hit in his only official appearance last night. He walked four times.

Park, East Nines Clash Tomorrow

Giant-killer East takes on Big Nine Conference baseball leader Morgan Park in the headline league struggle tomorrow afternoon.

The Greyhounds, with wins over Denfeld and Central downed the Trojans yesterday to hand Central its first loop setback of the season. The Greyhounds have had their ups and downs but have smacked two of the top-ranked teams. They now hold a 3-2 conference record.

Other games tomorrow find Denfeld and Cloquet battling at Wheeler and Two Harbors visiting Central.

Denfeld broke into the win column after consecutive losses to Morgan Park and East behind the brilliant no-hit pitching of Phil Morris yesterday. The Hunters smacked out eight hits and played errorless ball in a 10-0 victory. First baseman Cliff Opland smacked a three-run homer for Denfeld in the third inning.

Mike Goldfine went the distance for East in a 10-7 victory over Central. The Greyhounds sewed up the contest with three runs in the extra eighth inning. Rex Robbie had five-for-five for

MIGHTY CASEY—There's a new version of "Casey at the Bat," prompted by the current sixth-place standing of Manager Casey Stengel's New York Yankees. It goes like this: Somewhere the sun is shining, no longer on the Yanks so bright; the visage of their leader reflects the Yankees' plight. And somewhere the fans are cheering, pennant fever is the fad; but here at Yankee Stadium, mighty Casey is real sad.—(AP Wirephoto.)
