

Baseball Bits

★ CINCINNATI GOT SOME MUCH NEEDED pitching help when it landed hurlers Willard Schmidt, Ted Wieand and Marty Kutyna from the St. Louis Cardinals for outfielders Curtis Flood and Joe Taylor.

Andy Cohen, a Miller hero in the '30s, probably will spend 1958 as manager of the Colorado Springs club in the Western league . . . Andy is broken hearted because his old pal, Donie Bush, fired him out of Indianapolis.

The American Association apparently has come to an agreement on a 1958 schedule . . . The first game will be played in Metropolitan stadium next April 22 . . . From what we have seen of the program, it's better than last year for Minneapolis . . . But the Millers do not have a field manager as yet . . . GM Tommy Thomas will be home Sunday night and ready to go to work in earnest.