

Millers Battle Young Tribe T

By BOB BEEBE

Minneapolis Star Staff Writer

It will be a new and younger tribe of Indians that Minneapolis will engage at Indianapolis in a four-game series starting tonight.

Although the Indians still are tied up with the Chicago White Sox, there have been half a dozen changes in the starting front. New speed and defense are more evident than last year when power was the Tribe's forte.

Walker Cooper, replacing Andy Cohen as manager, has been using an all-rookie outfield composed of John Callison, 19, in center; Jim McAnany, 21, in left and Bill Hicks, 24, in right.

Callison hit .340, 17 home runs and stole 31 bases for Bakersfield, Calif., in 86 games last season.

ON THE INFIELD are Bob Hale, ex-Baltimore Oriole who also plays the outfield, on first base; Phil Mateja, up from the Sally league, at second, and Bobby Winkles, 1957 Texas league all-star, at shortstop.

