

Cohen Quits As Skipper At New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Vince Rizzo, general manager of the New Orleans Pelicans of the class AA Southern Assn., announced today the resignation of Manager Andy Cohen.

Cohen has managed the Pels for the last two seasons.

Since the local baseball club will become affiliated with the New York Yankees next season, it is expected a member of that organization will succeed Cohen, former infielder for the New York Giants.