Bradley Meets Dayton in Feature—

NIT Takes Over Spotlight

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sportswriter

The National Invitation Tournament steps front and center in college basketball's tournament stage for the next couple of days while Cincinnati, California and Ohio State—the game's Big Three—join New York U., in preparing for the NCAA semifinal showdowns at San Francisco Friday night.

The NIT, in the midst of its 23rd annual show at New York's Madison Square Garden, has a doubleheader Tuesday night to determine who joins Utah State and Providence in the semifinals.

The doubleheader brings top-seeded Bradley and defending champion St. John's off the sidelines, where they've been resting since the tournament began last Thursday.

Bradley Meets Dayton

Bradley, only team to beat top-ranked Cincinnati this season, takes a 24-2 record against big, strong Dayton (21-6) while St. John's (17-7 after losing its last two) goes against smooth-working St. Bonaventure, which has built its record to 20-3 with a 17-game winning streak.

The Bradley-Dayton and St. John's-St. Bonaventure winners will meet in one semifinal Thursday night with Providence and second-seeded Utah State, both 23-4, playing in the other. The final, to be nationally televised (NBC), will be played Saturday at 4 p.m., EST.

Although the NCAA has the more touted teams—with Cincinnati No. 1, defending champion California No. 2, and Ohio State No. 3 along with NYU at No. 12 in the final AP poll, the NIT already has established itself as one of the liveliest in years.

Three doubleheader sessions so far have drawn nearly 47,000 spectators with only one New York team (St. John's) in the lineup and that one still to play its first game.

The reason has been the sometimes spectacular but always eye-catching play of three unseeded teams—Providence, St. Bonaventure and Dayton.

The Providence Friars, who whipped Memphis State 71-70 and St. Louis 64-53 in its two appearances, have one of the nation's best backcourt pairs in six-footers Lenny Wilkens and Johnny Egan, plus a Bill Russell protege from the West Coast, 6-10 Jimmy Hadnot, in the pivot.

Stiths to See Action

St. Bonaventure has the capable Stith brothers, Tom and Sam, who have a combined 51.5 season scoring average. They've have made the team unbeatable since a 40-point loss to Cincinnati last Dec. 26 in the New York Holiday Festival.

Dayton, five times a finalist but never a champ in the NIT, has the usual big team associated with the school but one that can move the ball and cope with special defenses.

The Stiths combined for 52 points, Sam getting 27 and Tom 25, in St. Bonaventure's only NIT start so far, a 94-81 victory over Holy Cross. Dayton made its debut last Saturday night against Temple and overpowered the Owls 72-51, with 6-6 sophomore Gary Roggenburk, 6-3 Frank Case, and 6-1 Tommy Hatton in key roles. The Flyers can put a front line averaging 6-7 on the court.

Bradley and St. Johns both have individual stars—the Braves in Chet Walker, a high-scoring 6-7 sophomore, and the Redmen in All-America Tony Jackson, the NIT's most valuable player last year as a sophomore.

As for the NCAA, Cincinnati, California, Ohio State and NYU earned their trips to the San Francisco showdown by winning regional titles last Saturday night.

Cincinnati (27-1), with Oscar Robertson scoring 43 points, beat Kansas 82-71 and Friday will play California (27-1). The Golden Bears ousted the Bearcats in last year's semifinals and now has an 18-game winning streak after routing Oregon 70-49 behind All-America Darrall Imhoff.

Ohio State (23-3) won the Mideast regional 86-69 over Georgia Tech and Friday will play NYU (22-3), the Eastern regional champ after romping past Duke 74-59.

Together, the four have a 99-8 record and current winning streaks that total 46—18 for Cal, 14 for Cincinnati, 3 for Ohio State and 11 for NYU.

The small college tournament competition wound up Saturday with Southwest Texas State defeating Westminster (Pa.) 66-44 for the NAIA title. Evansville won its second straight NCAA small college championship Friday.

In ABC Tournament—

Big Week Due for Bowlers

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—The 57th American Bowling Congress championships have 10 weeks to go, but this week may be the big one. Three of the nation's top teams, including the defending champs, will roll, and Ed Lubanski, 1959 singles and all-events titlists, takes to the hardwood.

Lubanski is captain of Pfeiffer Beers of Detroit, the team that set an all-time ABC record of 3243 in winning last year's championships. And individually, Lubanski set an all-time record of 2116 in the all events and won the singles with 764.

The Pfeiffer team that rolls on the 9:30 p.m. shift tonight has all but one of last year's performers back.

Tuesday night Budweiser Beer of St. Louis, which finished third last year and fourth in 1958, makes its bid. This team holds an ABC league play record for a team series—3,858.

Nagy to Roll

Thursday night Steve Nagy leads another crack St. Louis team into action, Falstaff Beer which won the ABC tourney in 1958 with 3,210.

Current leader in the open team division after nine days of action on the alleys is Bellevue, Ky. Banks with 2,959. Only one team crashed the top 10 last night—General Glass Co. of Chicago with 2,905 for eighth.

The stick-toppling in the individual events has been in progress for eight days, and leaders are: singles, Mike Totsky, Detroit, 711; doubles, Robert Wheeler and Frank Iannarelli, Ashland, Ohio, 1,287; all-events, Bill Graham, Hammond, Ind., 1,867.

In the booster team division—for teams averaging 850 or less—Derby bar of Swissvale, Pa., rolled 2,736 yesterday to take second place, five pins behind Sylvania Electric of Ottawa, Ohio.

Two new pairs made the top 10 in doubles yesterday. Bob Chase and Glen Blakesley of Kansas City scored 1,250 for third, and John Wald and Mike Muth of St. Paul hit 1,220 for ninth.

Only singles change was on a 196-233-248—677 series by George E. Hartwig of Decatur, Ill., which placed him third. Hartwig's all-events total of 1,825 earned him 10th ranking in that division.

Harvey Dalli of Milwaukee rounded out Sunday's best all-events score at 1,837, good for a tie for fourth, and Bill Jackson of St. Paul totaled 1,835 for sixth.

Wallace Wins Tennis Upset

Bob Borders, Lloyd Wallace and Helene McCarter were winners in the one-set tennis tournament at Princess Park Sunday, with Wallace pulling off something of an upset by defeating Chips Kinnebrew 6-2 in the finals.

Borders beat Thay Butchee 6-0 in the semifinals and Dick Mecham 6-4 in the finals for A division honors, while Miss McCarter took the C division title with a 6-2 victory over Mary Anne Blanchard in the semis and a 6-3 decision over Marilyn Garner in the finals.

In other semifinal duels, Wallace beat Ed Dilworth 6-4, Kinnebrew nosed out young Gordon Trayor 6-4, Mecham blanked Ray Lake 6-0 and Miss Garner beat Flo Sproull 6-4. Consolation winners were Dan Blanchard (A), Harlan Judley (B) and Ophelia Carroll (C).

Coach's Plan Backfires

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies tell this one on coach Andy Cohen.

Just before Saturday's home exhibition opener against Milwaukee Cohen jokingly told the squad, "Anyone who pulls a rock today gets fined $25."

Someone pointed out to Cohen he was wearing the Phils' gray traveling uniform instead of the white home uniform.

Needham Elected by Southern—

Local Bowling Bid Delayed

By COTTON McCOY, Journal Bowling Editor

LITTLE ROCK—Roy Needham of Shreveport was installed president of the Southern Bowling Congress as that body held it's 23rd annual business meeting in the Lafayette hotel here Saturday afternoon. Needham, who is building superintendent for the North Lonisiana Sanitarium in Shreveport, was installed to his new office in the Congress by outgoing president R. L. (Bob) Holaday of Dallas, Texas.

NEW PRESIDENT—Roy Needham of Shreveport is the newly elected president of the Southern Bowling Congress. He was elected at the Southern's annual business session held Saturday at Little Rock.

The new president has been a hard worker in the Shreveport City Men's Bowling Association, the Louisiana State Association and the Southern for many years. As a bowler he won the Cough high average trophy in his city in 1956 when he carried a 183 composite average in four leagues at the Shreveport Bowling Center and Jordan Alley.

Prior to the installation of Needham as president an attempt by Shreveport representatives to get the Congress to award the annual tournament three years in advance instead of two, failed. The amendments committee was in favor of the change, but delegates voted against it.

Atlanta, Ga., will be the scene of the 1961 Southern tournament and the event goes to Louisville in 1962. Shreveport, Birmingham, Memphis, Jackson and Fort Worth all were prepared to make a bid for the 1963 tourney had the amendment to the constitution passed.

Louisville was given the tournament at Saturday's meeting. Memphis was the only city opposing Louisville for the title event, but withdrew before a vote was taken in favor of Louisville.

Five American Junior Bowling Congress teams from Arkansas which participated in the junior Southern bowling tournament Saturday morning were guests of the Congress at the Saturday luncheon.

The Pleasure Lanes team of Little Rock won the AJBC tourney with a 2,795 score. Ernest Viles is coach of the team whose members are Donnie Guthrie, Leonard Lumpass, Pete Carland, Rocky Conners and Bill Walker.
