Charleston Won Pennant

The Senators brought Charleston its first regular season pennant in 1958.

The league will include two divisions. The eastern division will have Charleston, Indianapolis, Louisville, St. Paul and Minneapolis. A western division will include Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth, Omaha and Denver.

Missing from last season's lineup will be Wichita. The Milwaukee Braves will operate the farm club formerly in Kansas at Louisville, with Ben Geraghty to return as manager.

Managers Listed

Charleston retained Bill Adair as skipper. Adair manager here most of the season after the parent club Detroit Tigers called up Bill Norman.

Other returning managers will be Walker Cooper at Indianapolis, Max Macon at St. Paul and Gene Mauch, the youthful pilot of Minneapolis' postseason play-off victors and conquerors of Montreal of the International league in the annual Little World Series.

Fred Martin will manage Dallas; Stan Hack at Denver, succeeding Andy Cohen; Lou Klein at Fort Worth, and Joe Schultz at Omaha, where John Keane was hired as a coach for the parent St. Louis Cardinals.

Houston named Rube Walker yesterday as its player-manager.
