

Miners Seek Game Streak

The cliché 'Records are meant to be broken' holds true once again for the University of Texas at El Paso baseball team.

Last week, Coach Andy Cohen's Miners shocked Arizona by winning the series two games to one, thus snapping a 19-game losing streak to the Wildcats.

Another losing streak is on the line when the Miners face Arizona State in a three-game series starting with a single game at 1 p.m. at Dudley Field. A doubleheader will be played Saturday.

The Miners have not defeated ASU in the past 20 meetings between the two schools while UTEP has managed only one win out of the last 35 confrontations.

Yet, Arizona State isn't about to take the Miners lightly after UTEP stunned Arizona in both ends of a doubleheader last Saturday.

"You know Arizona State's coach (Jim Brock) will make sure his kids won't be too overconfident because of what we did last week," said Cohen Thursday.

The Sun Devils will send Larry Eiler to the mound Friday in search of his second straight win over UTEP this season. Earlier in Tempe, Eiler (7-1) blanked the Miners on three hits in a 15-0 romp.

UTEP's Jerry Walker (3-5) is scheduled to hurl for the Miners who are now 2-10 in WAC action and 25-19 overall.
