

Miners Strike Out 11-0

Craig Chamberlain hurled a masterful six-hitter Friday while striking out 11 batters as the University of Arizona bombed the University of Texas at El Paso 11-0 at Dudley Field.

Chamberlain, a 190-pound junior college transfer from Los Alamos, Cal., upped his record for the season to 9-1 and 2-0 over UTEP. The Wildcats are now 6-4 in Western Athletic Conference play and 32-10 for the year while UTEP dropped to 2-8 in WAC and 26-19 overall.

"He's a good pitcher, there's no doubt about that," praised Miner coach Andy Cohen. "I also thought our man (Jim Sacco) did pretty good until he gave up that homer to (Bob) Woodside."

For four innings, the Miners stayed within one run of the Wildcats until a disastrous four-run fifth inning and an equally harmful sixth where four more Arizona runners crossed home plate.

"This is the worst day of my baseball career," moaned substatite left fielder Bill Roberts who was unable to catch up with a short fly to left in the fifth which would have ended the inning before Woodside's sixth homer of the year drove in three of the four runs.

The Miners trailed by only one run when Arizona's Jim Morley was on second base with two outs in the fifth. Les Pearsey looped a short fly toward Roberts who was playing deep although a strong wind was blowing in from left.

Pearsey's blooper fell at Roberts' feet, scoring Morley and prolonging the inning which eventually led to another Wildcat taking four balls from Sacco who is now 5-4 for the year and Woodside's blast over the fence in left-center which sent Sacco to the showers.

The sixth inning was more embarrassing for Roberts who was filling in for Danny Haygood, a victim of a separated shoulder which has sidelined the speedster for the remainder of the season.

After Tony Incaviglia reached third base with one out, Scott Overlund slapped a single to left which went through Roberts for a two-base error. "I looked up to see where the runner was," explained Roberts, "and the ball went right through me."

Morely followed with a run-scoring double before Pearsey slammed his 13th home run of the year in the same spot that Woodside hit his the inning before.

Arizona added an unearned run in the seventh and one in the ninth when Incaviglia socked his second four-bagger.

UTEP had several scoring opportunities but could never make Chamberlain bend. Arizona turned a double play in the second inning, wiping out Jerry Walker's crossing of home plate.

In the fifth and sixth innings, UTEP's first two batters reached base with no outs only to be stranded.

Arizona and UTEP conclude their three-game series at 11 a.m. Saturday at Dudley Field.
