Bullets Knock Off Sixers

LANDOVER, Md. (AP) — Wes Unseld put in a rebound shot with 12 seconds remaining to give the underdog Washington Bullets a 101-90 victory over the Philadelphia 76ers Friday night, giving Washington the Eastern Conference Championship, 4-2.

Washington moves into the National Basketball Association finals against the winner of the Western Conference best-of-seven series between Seattle and Denver.

GANG WAY, BULLETS — Doug Collins of the Philadelphia 76ers goes all out after the ball after it was deflected from the Washington Bullets' Wes Unseld (4) during the first period of the NBA playoff game at Capital Centre Friday night. Elvin Hayes and Milt Kephap (right) of the Bullets were held back by Collins. The ball rolled out of bounds.

The 76ers overcame an eight-point fourth quarter deficit while Julius Erving was on the bench in foul trouble and went ahead 90-80 on a foul shot by Jay Bryant with 2:36 left. Elvin Hayes, who scored 21 points for Washington, led the score 89-79, hitting one of two foul shots with 1:10 left to play.

Hayes then rebounded a shot with 30 seconds left by Doug Collins, who scored 31 of his 32 points in the first half. Hayes missed a field goal attempt, but Little Charles Johnson rebounded with 35 seconds remaining.

Johnson's next shot was of the rim. Unseld put up a rebound which missed but then followed his own shot and put it in to win the game. Philadelphia, the runnerup to the champion Portland Blazers last year, had one more chance but Lloyd Free was charged with an offensive foul when he ran into Hayes.

Bob Dandridge led Washington with 28 points and Larry Wright had 17, both before fouling out. Erving, who was on the bench for 10 minutes in the second half after drawing his fifth foul, finished with 22 points. Collins hit 14 of 19 shots in the first half, but was only 2-for-4 in the second half after the Bullets put Tom Henderson on him.

Unseld scored eight points, but grabbed 15 rebounds, while Hayes gathered in 11. It was the 30th consecutive home-court victory for Washington when played before crowds of 12,000 or more.

Unseld, who sprained his right ankle near the end of the second game and only returned to action in game No. 5, described the sequence on the winning basket.

"The shot went up and nobody was near me," he said. "I put it up quick because I thought Caldwell (Philadelphia's center Caldwell Jones) was near me. But he must have been watching Elvin. The ball came back to me and I put it up again."

During a timeout, Philadelphia set up a play in an attempt to tie the score.

Seattle Defeats Denver Nuggets

SEATTLE (AP) — Dennis Johnson scored 11 of his career-high 31 points in the fourth period and Fred Brown scored all 11 of his points in the final period to lead the Seattle SuperSonics to a 109-95 nationally televised victory Friday night over the Denver Nuggets and 31 lead in their National Basketball Association semifinal playoff.

A victory in Game 5 of the Western Conference championship series at Denver on Sunday will send the Sonics into the NBA finals for the first time in their 11-year history.

Seattle, which trailed 76-73 after three periods, led the game at 78-76 on rookie Jack Sikma's baseline jumper with 9:41 left in the period.

Brown followed with a jumper and after a Denver miss Johnson scored for a four-point Sonics lead.

Dan Issel, who led the Nuggets with 27 points before fouling out with 1:36 to go, narrowed the margin to two points with his basket before Brown countered with a 25-footer.

Denver closed to within two points just twice more, the last time on a pair of Mack Calvin free throws for an 86-84 deficit with 5:57 left.

Seattle then ran off six straight points on baskets by Johnson, Sikma and Brown for a 92-84 advantage two minutes later.

Johnson, whose previous high was 27 points, limited Nuggets star David Thompson to just eight points in the second half and 21 for the game. The Sonics limited Denver to just 38 points in the final two periods.

Seattle was shooting for 181 feet, which would have beaten bronze medalist Rustin Murrells' of San Marcos by one inch. Murrells' got the eventual gold shot from the start, then took two fouls, made 17-17 and ended with a third foul.

Philpe played to Reggie I runner-up Dave Hodgson of Atlanta Cooper at 19-4 and sixth to Larry Levermore of Del Rio at 17-2.

"Every time I throw without (Carter) I don't do any good," added Ross, who finished runner-up in Region 11 to Carter. "I still have to see that happen. The wind is great for a right-hander. I've been looking forward to this for six years."

Ross had taken 14 silver medal spots behind Carter this season in both the discus and shot and both are scheduled to meet again Saturday morning. Kevin Cummins of Eastwood will be in the lineup.

In Saturday's running finals, which start at 10 a.m., Ross will lead the state's top 800-yard man at 1:32.6, seeks the gold medal in the 800 meters, while Sergio Oaxaca of Bel Air looks for a medal in the second and last event still not converted to meters, the mile run.

"I tried to get it out there," said Salazar, whose best was a 179-6. In Saturday's long jump, which was the only AAAA event, taking the long jump with a 25-04 job. Fred Hoyt of Baytown Lee was second at 25-04.

Cohen Talks Of Hanging It Up

UTEP'S ANDY COHEN
... Baseball Coach Contemplates Retirement

baseball coach Andy Cohen has apparently decided to hang up his jersey after the Miners conclude the 1978 season Saturday.

Although Cohen said he will not announce a decision until he talks to UTEP Athletic Director Jim Bowden early next week, Cohen has hinted strongly that he'll resign his post which he has held since baseball was first introduced at UTEP in 1963.

"The fun isn't there now like it used to be," said Cohen recently. "It's for that reason that I'm seriously thinking about retiring. I can't even hit in-field balls anymore and maybe it's time to come new life to come into the program."

Cohen's attempts to turn UTEP's baseball program into a Western Athletic Conference contender so that the Miners could compete along the same lines with Arizona and Arizona State have shown little progress.

Cohen is currently in his 16th season at UTEP after playing several years of professional ball. Cohen has claimed to be the winningest manager percentage-wise in the major leagues.

"I had retired from baseball in 1959 but in 1960, I was called to coach at Philadelphia," recalled Cohen. "Eddie Sawyer was the manager and had been for several years. I guess he saw that Philadelphia wasn't going to have a good team because he resigned before the 1960 season began."

"I was appointed manager for opening day. I'll never forget it. We beat Milwaukee in 10 innings 5-4."

AMARILLO — El Paso's Diablos abandoned their usual power attack and employed a steady, pecking away at the plate to out-finesse Amarillo's Gold Sox by an 8-3 margin here Friday night.

The victory, El Paso's third in a row and one that lifted the Diablos back into the winning percentage with a 16-11 record, featured only one extra-base hit along with seven singles.

Continuing the recent trend of excellent performances by the Diablos' starting pitchers, Jim Derry worked two batters into the eighth inning to become the first Diablos hurler with four victories. Daniel Boone, the team's leading ERA man, displayed his coonskin cap for the benefit of the enemy crowd and retired six men he faced to preserve the victory.

In addition to the low-ounce attack of seven singles, the Diablos displayed more finesse than usual on the basepaths, where they stole two bases to none for the Gold Sox. And, El Paso chipped in two sacrifice flies to keep the offensive momentum.

El Paso set the stage for its victory with a big four-run first inning. Bob Slater walked, Orlando Ramirez singled and stole second while Bob Clark walked to lead the bases. Dan Goodwin singled in two runs while Bill Ewing singled in another and Floyd Rayford added a fourth with a sacrifice fly.

In the second inning, Terry Stupp walked and later scored on an error by Amarillo center fielder Brian Greer. Two more came in the eighth inning when Clark powered his seventh home run, tops on the team. And, also in the eighth, Rayford singled in Goodwin.

An insurance run came in the ninth when Goodwin's sacrifice fly scored Slater.

Amarillo, which has lost 15 of its last 16 outings, scored all three of its runs on Tim Derryberry's homer in the sixth inning.

Lucas' Diversity Pays Dividends In Two Sports

Lucas

JOHN LUCAS is a throwback to an era when man was a jack-of-all trades. Benjamin Franklin would have cited him in "Poor Richard's Almanack." Daniel Boone would have taken him along as a guide. Andrew Jackson would have made him a member of the cabinet.

If Lucas was on an assembly line, while cars would be built in one stroke rather than a generator can here and a spark plug there. The Age of Specialization? It ranks right up there with fur burrs.

Lucas, who appears with his Son Bob teaming against the New York Apollo Sunday night in El Paso, is so diversified what Timothy Leary was to the drug culture.

In case you haven't heard, Lucas is the only athlete around currently who has made the big time in two professional sports. During the fall and winter, he's the playmaker for the Houston Rockets. During the spring and summer, he trades basketball for fuzzy balls and World Team Tennis.

Quite a feat in this day and age. In the past, a few of these types have been around — Ron Reed, Dave DeBusschere and Jim Thorpe are the first who come to mind — but Lucas is the first to combine both sports.

He's a two-sport athlete. He can play basketball and tennis. He can be a coach and a player. He can be a manager and a player. He can be a leader and a player. He can be a winner and a player. He can be a champion and a player. He can be a legend and a player. He can be a hero and a player. He can be a role model and a player. He can be a inspiration and a player.
