'As I Was Saying ...'

NL Has 'Names' Too

NAMES IN THE NATIONAL League make news too (the American League had first go at it yesterday).

It's plain as DAY (Charles Day, outfielder) that the St. Louis Cardinals will have a FLOOD (Curt, outfielder) of well-pitched, clean-fielding, heavy-hitting games again. The HART (Jim, infielder) of the San Francisco Giants may still be WILLIE MAY'S but have gilt-edged BONDS (Bobby, outfielder) elsewhere. Since they went on a HUNT (Ron, infielder) last year, the Grants have stopped some leaks. Old Leo Durocher of the Cubs has some good HANDS (Bill, pitcher) and is expected to be NYE (Rich, pitcher) on to a pennant or he'll bust a LUNG (John, infielder). Cincinnati Reds in SHORT (Bill pitcher) could be a flag contender with Dave Bristol at the HELMS (Tommy, infielder). It would be like being QUEEN (Mel, pitcher) for a day and smelling a ROSE (Pete, outfielder) in October.

'House' of 'Stone'

THE ATLANTA BRAVES' HOUSE (Pat, pitcher) is in order. They've left no STONE (George, pitcher) unturned. LUM (Mike, outfielder) is there if Abner's not. The Braves may even have searched SPAIN (Don, pitcher) for talent. They have a number of Spanish-speaking players and others ring a BELL (Stan, pitcher). The Pirates have been disappointing in recent years. They are fortified with both MOOSE (Bob, pitcher) and VEALE (Bob, pitcher) steaks this year. They know where the power ALLEY (Gene, infielder) is but need more pitching to SETTLE (Bob, pitcher) on top. The Los Angeles Dodgers still intend to play FAIRLY (Ron, outfielder) this year but they haven't had a pennant in so long they may also be a little SAVAGE (Ted, outfielder). That will make a pennant SINGER (Bill, pitcher) out of the fans. The Phillies hope not only to be in the MONEY (Don, infielder) but want to be the NL CHAMPION (Billy, pitcher) in SHORT (Chris, pitcher). They'd like to LOCK (Don, outfielder) it up quick.

Mets 'Rohr' for Flag

THE NEW YORK METS fans ROHR (Les, pitcher) for the team whether it wins or not but bet your sweet BIBBY (Jim, pitcher) that they'd like to have a pennant winner. The Houston Astros have a KING (Hal, catcher), a RADER (Doug, third baseman) and a MILLER (Norm, outfielder). They hope to WYNN (Jim, outfielder) and be able to shout GERONIMO (Cesar, outfielder). The New Montreal Expos don't believe in FAIREY (Jim, outfielder) stories. They have the expansionist BRAND (Ron, catcher) but where there's a WILLS (Maury, infielder), there's a way. And the San Diego Padres also will KNUCKLES (Phil, pitcher) down, STAHL (Larry, outfielder) out their apprenticeship and pray for a Santa KLAUS (Bobby, fielder).
