

Open WAC Friday— Miners Missing 3 For Road Trip

By MIKE PEMBERTON

Andy Cohen's U.T. El Paso Miner baseball team will begin its longest road trip of the season tomorrow when the Miners travel to Albuquerque for a two game series with Albuquerque and a three game outing the Lobos of New Mexico. In the latter series the Miners will make their Western Athletic debut.

When Cohen begins his road trip he will be hoping that losing three of his players during the Easter Holiday layoff didn't hurt his Miners.

McLelland and Bill Onick won't be making the trip with Cohen and his team to the Duke City. Jones has checked in his uniform because of pro football dealings with Green Bay Packers. Onick suffered a sprained ankle in an intramural basketball game over the Easter vacation and McLelland was injured in the Oklahoma game here when he fell in right field.

Most seriously hurt is McLelland, who suffered a severe sprain. Cohen said, "the doctor has ordered him to stay off of it for at least three weeks. Onick will be out at least for a week and maybe longer."

Cohen will meet Albuquerque for the second time this year and is hoping that the result won't be the same. When they met in the opener of the season, Albuquerque gave the Miners two straight losses. The Miners then turned around for an eight game win streak.

THE MINERS will meet Albuquerque tomorrow afternoon and Thursday afternoon.

The Lobos who nationally ranked will host the Miners for a three game series beginning on Friday at 3 p.m. On Saturday a twin-bill is slated to begin at 1 p.m.

Cohen said, "Albuquerque has two solid pitchers and a good hitting team. They also have one of the finest second basemen in the country." He added, "I haven't seen New Mexico but their record speaks for itself."

HARRY MILNER will get the nod to start against Albuquerque in the opener. "I will save Bombard for relief tomorrow, if needed, and give him the go ahead Saturday."
