

Plans Big Ticket Sale—

Morris Heads Front Office Of Sun Kings

Bob Morris, who was business manager of the Sun Kings in 1964 and 1965, is returning as general manager of the El Paso club and is ready to start a campaign to rebuild baseball interest in El Paso.

His appointment as general manager of the club was announced by Ray A. Johnston, new owner of the Sun Kings, at a luncheon in El Paso.

MORRIS WAS general manager of the Des Moines Iowans in the American Assn. last year. His team had a financially successful season due to the advance sale of more than $100,000 in tickets.

The Iowa team is owned by Johnston, who recently assumed ownership of the Sun Kings.

Morris, after leaving El Paso, was general manager of Austin and Shreveport teams under sponsorship of the Atlanta Braves.

HE SAID HE returned to El Paso by his own choice because he believed this could be one of the best franchises in minor league baseball.

He said an intensive ticket campaign would start soon after the first of the year. Help was promised him by John Phelan, H. D. Fulwiler, Harry Elliott and Andy Cohen, who are members of the original "40 Owners" of the Sun Kings.

Fred Herschleder, general manager of the Sun Kings for the last year under outright ownership by the California Angels, will retire from that job but will work on a part-time basis in the Sun Kings front office.

THE ANGELS will continue to supply players to the Sun Kings under a working agreement.

Johnston, who has been associated with baseball for many years, said that it was likely that Del Rice would be returned to El Paso as manager of the Kings for 1970.

The California Angels have dropped their San Jose farm club in the California League. "That might mean that there'll be more players available for El Paso," said Cohen.

Leo Martin Sluggish In Ring Win

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Heavyweight Leotis Martin won a 10-round unanimous decision over Roger Russell last night at the Spectrum Sports Arena.

Middleweight Joe Shaw upset Benny Briscoe in a junior middleweight preliminary match.

Martin, 198, Philadelphia, used the bout as a tuneup for his Dec. 6 meeting with ex-champ Sonny Liston in Las Vegas.
