Andy Cohen, who reached the top as a schoolboy basketball player for El Paso High School and as a professional player, has been named the first member of the El Paso Athletic Hall of Fame.

The State Supreme Court in Austin upheld the validity of El Paso's $1.5 million bond issue for construction of off-street parking facilities.

The arrest of several burglary suspects ended a grueling, four-day high-tension stakeout by officers of El Paso Police Department.

W. S. "Bill" Crombie Jr., chairman of the Central YMCA Membership Campaign, termed the annual drive a "big success."
