

Cohen's Miners Take Two Games

The line on the University of Texas at El Paso baseball team is that it would rather win games with late rallies rather than being on the losing end.

So it seemed Friday at Dudley Field as Coach Andy Cohen's Miners broke away from Hardin-Simmons University with time running out for a sweep of the doubleheader 2-1 and 9-7.

Both squads meet for another twinbill beginning at 1 p.m. Saturday at Dudley Field with no-hit specialist Dan Modlinski and undefeated Ron Wrobell looking for their second consecutive triumphs of the young 1975 campaign.

The Miners almost relied entirely on Joey Pennies' third inning solo homerun over the right field fence, his first this season.

But with one out in the seventh, Cowboy Tom McPherson received the second base on balls allowed by Miner winner George Landreth (1-0). Another out later, the No. nine batter in the lineup, Mike Walsh, slashed a double to right-center field driving pinch runner Glen Casey home with the tying run.

The Miners had their turn though as Pennies took four straight balls with one out, moved to third on Terry Dillingham's single to right and scored the winning run when U. T. El Paso's Dave Nance, also ninth in the batting order, ripped a Mark Lotham pitch past first base to end the game.

Cohen's squad found itself in trouble in the early goings as Hardin-Simmons placed two men on with one out in the initial period. A doubleplay though from Glenn Villarreal to Art Bravo to Dillingham ended the rally.

Another twin-killing destroyed a Cowboy rally in the second before Landreth settled down.

"The longer George went," said Cohen, "The stronger he got. He was real sharp those last few innings."

Villarreal got the ball rolling in the second contest with a first inning tater to right with teammate Jimmy Walsh on board. "I was ready to turn around and head toward the dugout," explained Villarreal of his homer, "because I didn't think I got hold of it that good." The homer was the first of 1975 for the right-hander and also equalled his total 1974 output.

Walsh knocked home the first of his three RBIs in the second, Dave Patt from second, staking Miner starter Sam Cox with a comfortable 3-0 margin.

But the sunny sky turned to darkness for Cox and the Miners in Hardin-Simmons' half of the third. After retiring the first six batters to face him, Cox lost control, allowing a combination of three singles and as many walks to the first six batters before Cohen pulled the sophomore in favor of Bob Knox.

By the time the inning concluded, the Cowboys were up by a 6-8 count.

Walsh sparked a fourth-frame rally with a two-run bloop single to left scoring Alan Morris and Joe Segapeli and then Keith Rushing knotted the score with a single to center scoring Walsh.

Both teams added single runs in the fifth and then an inning later, the Miners decided the outcome.
