

Cohen Disappointed As Miners Split Games

The time has come for Andy Cohen to select his permanent lineup.

Following a split of Saturday's doubleheader with Hardin-Simmons University at Dudley Field, Cohen said, "I have a pretty good idea who'll make up the No. 1 team. We're going to Texas Tech next weekend and we need to pick the top players."

The University of Texas at El Paso coach felt a little queasy after his Miners dumped the Cowboys 5-2 in the nightcap after Hardin-Simmons tripped U.T. El Paso in the opener 5-3.

"I'm a little disappointed with the way we played these two games," commented Cohen after his squad upped its record to 5-2 while H-S now stands at 2-5. "We weren't hitting the ball. It seems when Glenn Villarreal doesn't hit, the whole team goes sour."

Villarreal was blanked all four times he appeared at the plate in the opening contest, which was one of the reasons the Miners scored only three runs and left 12 runners stranded on base.

"The 12 men left on base plus Hardin-Simmons' pitcher (Fred Green) was the whole story," added Cohen. "Green did a real good job pitching himself out of jams."

Seems the Miners left the bases jammed without crossing home plate in both the first and seventh innings while coming up with one-run innings in the second, fifth and sixth frames. But Hardin-Simmons bunched five runs in the fifth and sixth innings which proved too much of a margin for Cohen's squad to make up.

The second game was a different story. With Ron Wrobel on the mound, the Miners were able to build a 5-0 advantage before the Cowboys smacked their first hit, that coming with no outs in the sixth inning.

Jimmy Walsh led off the game with an opposite-field double, a hard line drive placed between center and left, and scored two outs later on Terry Dillingham's single to left.

Wayne Larson started a four-run celebration in the fifth with a single up the middle. An out later, Walsh walked and Keith Rushing sent a single to center scoring Larson.

Villarreal followed with his first hit of the day, a shot to center that sent Walsh home. After Dillingham was walked by losing hurler Randy Hoyle to load the sacks, Hoyle responded by hitting Roy Stringer with a pitch, forcing in Rushing.

Joey Pennies ended the festivities with a long fly to right, scoring Villarreal who tagged up.

Wrobel, who finished with a two-hitter, lost his shutout in the seventh when two of his teammates committed errors.

With one away, Andy Gamboa was safe at first after Dave Patt fumbled a grounder at short. Mike Walsh then doubled to left sending Gamboa to third. Trying to pick Gamboa off at third, catcher Randy Larson threw the ball down the left field line scoring Gamboa and moving Walsh to third.

Apparently shaken, Wrobel uncorked a wild pitch scoring Walsh. Both runs were unearned as Wrobel captured his second straight victory against no defeats.

Next week, the Miners make their first road trip to Lubbock for a two-day four-game series with Texas Tech's Red Raiders beginning Friday.
