

Face Miners Tonight

'Cats Record Does Talking

Sometimes records speak for themselves and when it comes to the University of Arizona, Andy Cohen is well aware of the Wildcat credentials.

"Coach Jerry Kindall's record sure talks for itself," said the University of Texas at El Paso baseball coach as he prepared the Miners for their three-game series with fifth-rated Arizona in Tucson beginning at 1 p.m. Friday.

The initial Western Athletic Conference series continues with a doubleheader Saturday before U.T. El Paso returns to El Paso for an exhibition game at 7 p.m. Wednesday against the El Paso Diablos of the Texas League.

"Arizona is a very powerful ball club and I'd be happy to win one game over there," added Cohen.

The problem U. T. El Paso faces is a lineup that averages .337 per hitter with six batters holding .359 averages or better paced by Steve Powers' .414 and Bob Woodside's .413 batting marks.

"You know," said Cohen. "I was talking with Kindall the other night and he's really worried about our team. We asked him if we could use their field Thursday night for practice and he said his squad would be going through an extremely tough workout. I sure hope we can live up to his expectations."

U. T. El Paso doesn't possess any .400 hitters, but it does have a few players who have been known to rip the cover off the hard balls.

Centerfielder Joey Pennies leads the Miners with a .352 average, has three homers and six doubles to his name and leads the entire squad in stolen bases with six. He has only struck out twice.

Glenn Villarreal at third is the team's leading home run collector with four. He also has more doubles (9) than any other teammate, shares runs batted in leadership with first baseman Terry Dillingham with 17 each, and has a .349 mark.

Outfielders Bob Alsup and Steve Dau have identical .327 batting averages while Keith Rushing rounds out the .300 hitters with a .309 mark.

Big George Landreth, a southpaw from Midland, Tex., has compiled a 3-1 record during his four appearances while establishing the lowest earned run average (0.85) among the Miner hurlers.

Landreth has allowed only three earned runs during the 31½ innings of mound duty and has been tabbed by Cohen to pitch the WAC openr Friday against Arizona.

"George has worked out real hard and he should be ready to go Friday," said Cohen.

Landreth was scheduled to pitch last Saturday against New Mexico Highlands but a sudden snow storm forced the Texas native to miss game conditions.

"I was hoping he could have pitched, but I don't think the layoff will hurt him. He has been showing real good control," praised Cohen.

Freshman Ron Wrobel (4-2) will go in Saturday's opener and Cohen is hoping Dan Modlinski's arm will be in shape for the nightcap. "Moe went to the doctors this week and we're not sure what kind of condition his pitching elbow will be in," Cohen said.

Any and all help would be appreciated.
