

Brooks Lawrence and Art Fowler, who were down for duty yesterday against the Cardinals, will be on the hill this afternoon when the Redlegs play the Tigers at Henley Field in Lakeland at 1:30 o'clock.

Both Tampa-trained teams started cutting down on players yesterday. The Redlegs optioned Southpaw Charley Rabe and Righthander Johnny Brechin to Seattle of the Pacific Coast League. The White Sox sent Shortstop Ben Prohovich and Catcher John Romano on 24-hour option to Indianapolis of the American Association. Indianapolis, managed by Andy Cohen is holding Spring training at Hollywood, Fla.

Ed Short, Chicago publicity director, said the Sox were now down to 38 players not counting Roger Howard, young right-hander, who belongs to the Indianapolis club but is getting a Spring training trial with the American League club.

Thompson Leads