

Mel Allen to air Army-Navy details Dec. 1 . . . It'll be possible to get the Baltimore games direct next summer since the new outlet WBAL is a 50,000 watt and clearly received locally . . . Allie Reynolds national chairman for an Oklahoma A&M fund-raising campaign . . . What the papers didn't report is that Andy Cohen, at Indianapolis, will be united with North Ender Angelo "Tiny" Tunis who served as his trainer in New Orleans . . . Wilkes-Barreans accept lengthy silence of Tony Baldoni as equivalent to his retirement notice; he was kayoed twice in row . . . One of clubs in Pat Padden's Venezuelan Occidental League protesting because a rival is supposedly paying big league wages . . . Pat could settle issue by asking "What are they using for money?"