

fight biz to the pros.

Phils hiring of our old pal (and recent Elmiran) Andy Cohen as a coach warmly received . . .

Progress Notes: Work on Washington's new stadium starts soon and it'll be available for '61 events; Newark inheriting a 7,500 sports auditorium which means Willie Gilzenberg and "Babe" Culnan can bid for the big ones . . . Cards' bright pitching prospect Bob Gibson appeared here with the Harlem Globetrotters and possessed basketball class . . . Boxing elders think Harold Johnson will beat Sonny Liston, hence reluctance of the latter's agent Allentowner "Pep" Barone (and the behind the curtain lads) to make the match.
