

Pelicans End Baron Route; Turn On Crax

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Little imagination is needed to picture the dazed Birmingham Barons sitting back today and relishing the thought that now it is the Atlanta Crackers' turn to see what they can do with those pepper-pot Pels from New Orleans.

Andy Cohen's crew, who knocked the Barons out of the Southern Assn. lead by winning four of five games, now move east to tackle the new pacesetter, Atlanta, in a three-game series starting tonight.

Don Kildoo completed the humiliation of Birmingham with a three hit masterpiece for a 10-0 New Orleans victory. And to make matters even more embarrassing, the shutout came on "Baron Appreciation Night" with 3,455 fans looking on in agony and, perhaps, wondering if they should have showered all those gifts on Phil Page and his lads.

Atlanta, meanwhile, was busy beating Mobile 9-4 and opening up a full game lead over Memphis, which lost to Chattanooga 7-1. Country Brown hit a two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth to give Nashville an 8-7 triumph over Montgomery.