EL PASO, Tex. — Senior right-hander Dave Breuker kept alive Arizona's baseball title hopes Friday by pitching the Wildcats to a 3-0 victory over Texas-El Paso at wind-swept Dudley Field.

It was the Wildcats' fourth consecutive Western Athletic Conference (WAC) victory, including a three-game sweep at New Mexico last weekend. Texas-El Paso is now 2-5 in WAC play.

UTEP coach Andy Cohen plans to pitch Bobby Knox (3-0) against the Wildcats in the first game of a doubleheader today, with Mike Kruta (0-2) going in the nightcap. For Arizona, Ed Anderson (3-1) will start the first game, with Mark Schimpf (4-1) slated to pitch the second.

Knox leads the nation with a 0.00 earned run average in 30 and  $\frac{2}{3}$  innings.

"Breuker pitched a real good game," complimented Cohen. "He was powering the ball all the way. We had a chance to score with men on base several times and couldn't come through."

Breuker, an Amphitheater High School graduate, collected his first shutout of the season as he allowed four hits, struck out four and walked seven. He was in trouble twice; in the first inning with the bases loaded and two out; and again in the sixth with runners at first and third and two out. However, groundouts ended both Texas threats.

Arizona coach Jerry Kindall attributed Breuker's wildness to the 35-to-45 mile per hour winds which caused his breaking pitches to miss the plate.

"I am hoping that the more Dave gets to pitch, the better he will become," Kindall said. "The wind was so strong that the walks were not a true indicator of his control."

Breuker wasn't the only pitcher affected by wildness however, as Texas-El Paso's Ray Greggerson (3-2) allowed walks to account for two of Arizona's runs.

With two out in the fifth inning, Arizona's Marty Reid walked and scored on a double by Scott Norris. In the eighth, Wildcat Ben Heise walked and then moved to third on a hit by Marv Thompson.

Cohen removed Greggerson, but his successor, Jeff Hogan, proceeded to throw 10 straight balls, forcing in a run. The third UA tally came when Bob Starke hit into a force play at second base.

The Wildcats left seven men on base, to nine for the Texans. Arizona could have added another run in the sixth inning, but a pickoff play at second nailed Thompson. Norris followed with a double that would have scored Thompson. The pickoff was one of three performed by Texas-El Paso pitchers Friday.

NOTES — Friday was Breuker's third wedding anniversary . . . a line drive off the bat of Jim Filippelli's struck Hogan in the jaw and the freshman hurler was taken to a hospital for x-rays . . . according to Texas-El Paso officials, Friday attendance of 142 was the largest of the season.

Sun Devils Dump New Mexico, 13-1

PHOENIX (AP) — Arizona State University won its 30th straight Western Athletic Conference Southern Division baseball game with a 13-1 thrashing of New Mexico Friday night.

Lefthander Eddie Bane struck out 13, and allowed five hits, winning his ninth game in 10 decisions.

The Sun Devils scored first in the second inning on a double by Tom Sain and Jeff Oscarson's single.

Four runs in the third iced the victory for ASU. Losing pitcher Ron Adair issued two walks, a single by Dick Harris and a triple by Oscarson in the inning.

Six Lobo errors contributed to the Devils' cause.
