

Twenty-Five Years Ago

Chief of Police C.S. McCausland announced the appointment of Chester Riggs, former deputy sheriff under Fred Hill, to the Carlsbad police department.

-- 0 --

A baseball school conducted by former big league stars, was assured for Carlsbad in the spring, Dr. Frank Bohannon and Troy Clark announced, following a conference with Andy Cohen, Boston Braves scout, during the Sun Bowl festivities in El Paso.

-- 0 --

A meeting of the city council had been called to take action on a resolution for a permanent license to operate the airport facilities at the Carlsbad Army Air Field. The city had been operating the airport on a temporary right of entry given by the Army.