

Miner Nine Loses 3-1 To Denver University

Denver University scored all its runs in the sixth inning Thursday and went on to defeat the University of Texas at El Paso Miners 3-1 at Dudley Field.

Paul Steimac started the pioneer outburst with a single. Bob Tarvin followed with a triple to the base of the centerfield wall, driving in Steimac. A double by Monte Aspden chased Tarvin in to score, making the tally 2-0.

Then Miner coach Andy Cohen pulled starting pitcher Dave Jannusch and inserted Jeff Hogan to quell the rally.

Hogan walked Carl Renn to put men at first and second. Jim Flynn put down a bunt which Hogan fielded and threw to third attempting a forceout. The throw was late and the Miners faced a bases-loaded, no-out situation.

Denver second baseman

Glenn Schwab grounded to third baseman Glenn Villarreal who threw to the plate for a forceout. The next Denver batter hit a ground ball to shortstop David Nance who failed to make the play. Renn scored on the error upping the margin to 3-0. Hogan retired the next batter to end the inning.

Until the Pioneers got to Jannusch in the sixth, he had yielded only three hits and was in serious trouble only once.

In the fourth, Denver loaded the bases but came away empty. The Miner starter, now 0-2, also chalked up five strikeouts.

Jannusch's mound opponent, John Blair, hurled seven innings of four-hit, shutout ball before being charged with an earned run in the eighth frame. Blair, 1-0, picked up the win with relief help.

In the Miner eighth, Herb Von Hagen and Mark Miller received bases on ball. Villarreal was retired on a fly to left. Bob Downing brought in the sole Miner run of the day with a single.

After two outs in the ninth, the Miners loaded the bases with singles by Joe Pennies, Jim Brundage and a walk to Von Hagen. Doug Elliott came in to pitch to Miller and retired the Miner batter on a ground ball to first to end the game.

Pennies paced the Miner offensive attack with three hits in four trips. He and Downing lead the regulars with .333 averages. Villarreal and Miller round out the .300-plus hitters with .306 and .300 respectively.

The Miners host Denver again at 2 p.m. Friday in a single game at Dudley Field.

Denver 3, U.T. El Paso
 Denver000 003 000-3 8 1
 U.T. El Paso000 000 010-1 7 4
 John Blair, Jack Wlezen (8th), Doug Elliott (9th), and Dave Steinke; Dave Jannusch, Jeff Hogan (6th), and Jim Brundage. W-Blair (1-0). L-Jannusch (0-2).