

Miners, Aggies Set For Battle In Las Cruces

With the pressure of keeping the University of Texas at El Paso's baseball win streak on, Coach Andy Cohen's Miners travel to Las Cruces Tuesday for a doubleheader with New Mexico State's Aggies.

A victory in one of the two games against the Aggies will better last year's total victories for the Miners with the season only half over.

Friday, the Miners open Western Athletic Conference action against the tough Arizona State Sun Devils at Dudley Field and then take on the same team in a Saturday afternoon doubleheader.

Tuesday's games against NMSU begin at 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. at Apodaca Field.
