

Miners Lose Doubleheader; Lobos Nail WAC Series

Special to The El Paso Times

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — The University of Texas at El Paso baseball team outhit the University of New Mexico all afternoon but the Lobos came away with a doubleheader sweep, 3-2, 9-4, in Western Athletic Conference play Saturday.

All the scoring in the opener occurred in the second inning. The visiting Miners led off with Joe Pennies' double. Terry Dillingham singled him across for the first run. After Keith Rushing walked, Jim Brundage laid down a sacrifice bunt which the first baseman could not handle. Dillingham scored from second base on the play with the second Miner tally.

The Lobos countered in their half of the frame with three runs. An error, two singles and Ron Smith's two-RBI double gave New Mexico its winning total.

Miner coach Andy Cohen said, "Hogan pitched a good game. We just didn't get any breaks."

Hitting stars in the contest were Pennies with a four-for-four performance including two doubles and Smith who went two-for-two including his game-winning hit.

Holding a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the fourth, the Miners got into trouble.

UNM loaded the bases with a single and two walks before Bill Pikorsky's double chased three runs home. Then Bob Knox relieved Miner starter Dan Modlinski and retired the first man he faced. Another walk and an error loaded the bases again before Mark Hiller delivered a single to up the UNM lead to 5-1.

The Miners picked up 11 hits but could not bunch them to score more than one run in any inning. In the fifth, Cohen's team garnered three safeties and had the bases loaded with one score in. However, Bob Downing hit into a force play at second to end the inning.

In the ninth, trailing 8-3, the Miners put three runners on with no outs. Rushing walked, Roy Stringer singled and Herb Von Hagen walked to mount the threat.

With the count 2-0 on Mark Miller, UNM brought in
