

Dodgers Defeat Birds; Banks Belts Grandslam

It was short and sweet for interim Manager Andy Cohen of the Phillies, who comes down from cloud nine Friday and goes back to the coaching line again.

Out-slicking Charlie Dressen, he led Philadelphia to a 10-inning, 5-4 victory over Milwaukee Thursday night and if nothing else, Cohen can always say he "retired" as the most successful manager in Phillies' history.

In case you've never heard of Cohen, he's the same fellow John McGraw dug up to play second base for the Giants in 1924 when McGraw wanted to give New York fans their first look at a Jewish ball player. Now 55, Cohen was hired as a coach by the Phils this year and was delegated to lead the club Thursday night a few hours after Eddie Sawyer suddenly quit as manager.

Cohen knew he was simply a stop-gap until Gene Mauch, the Phillies' new pilot, could join the club from Florida. But he did a job that would have made McGraw proud.

The Dodgers handed the Cardinals their third straight loss, 3-2; the Cubs inflicted the first defeat of the season upon the Giants, 6-5, and the Pirates crushed the Reds, 13-0.

Gil Hodges drove in the tying run for the Dodgers with a triple in the ninth and then scored the McCovey's three-run homer in the winning one on Bob Duliba's wild eighth. Orlando Cepeda and Willie Kirkland also hit homers for the Giants while Ernie Banks hit der each hit homers. Ed Roebuck relieved starter Johnny Podres in the eighth grand slam of his career for the Cubs. Don Elston, the Cards' fourth pitcher, was the winner and Billy O'Dell was the loser.

A wind-blown-pop-fly double by Vern Law limited the Reds to Frank Thomas in the ninth scored seven hits while his Pirate team-Bob Will with the winning runmates clubbed loser Cal McLish for the Cubs after the Giants and four relievers for 11 safeties had tied the score at 5-5 on Willie in Pittsburgh's home opener
