

Braves Seek Sub For Bruton Andy Cohen Fired As Pilot Of Indianapolis Indians

From Press Dispatches

Andy Cohen, who managed the Eau Claire Braves of the Northern League in 1948, 1949 and 1950, was fired as pilot of the Indianapolis Indians of the American Association after one season at the helm.

Indianapolis finished sixth this past season with 74 wins and 80 defeats — the first time in his 12-year managing career Cohen has finished under .500.

The Indians won the Association pennant and the Little World Series last year.

* * *

The Milwaukee Braves made formal application to baseball Commissioner Ford Frick to substitute bonus outfielder John Demerit for the injured Billy Bruton on their World Series roster. Demerit signed with the Braves for a $75,000 bonus last June after graduating from the University of Wisconsin and batted .172 in 29 games.

Cohen

* * *

Gallant Man, Bold Ruler, Dedicate and Reneged lead the field today at Belmont Park in the brilliant renewal of the $100,000 Woodward Stakes.

* * *

Michigan State is a 21-point favorite over Indiana today, in the Big Ten football opener at East Lansing, Mich. The eight other Big Ten teams play non-league games.

* * *

Use of boats propelled by motors will be banned on three Minnesota lakes from Oct. 5 to Dec. 5 "in the interest of proper game management." The lakes are Christina in Douglas and Grant counties, Heron in Jackson County and Squaw in Itasca.