Stengel May Rev on Yanks to End His All-Star Game Jinx

Flinging through the air to no avail is Stengel's catcher, Bob Oltz (122), on a play at second base in the third inning of the first game at Victory Field yesterday afternoon. Oltz was forced at second by Fritz Brickell, who was safe at first when Vince Carter, a late relay to Ron Jackson, the Indians won both games, 5-4 and 4-0. (The News Photo, Dean Timmerman)

Shades of '56—Our Indians on Warpath

By LESTER KOLLING
The big boom of 1956 is casting its shadows across Victory Field where the Indianapolis Indians are riding the crest of a hot streak and attendance is on the upswing.

The biggest Sunday crowd of the season—3,794—saw the Indians take the Detroit Tigers to the woodshed for 5-4 and 4-0 spanking yesterday afternoon, thus putting their present home stand to right victory in nine games.

The double triumph, the third straight Sunday two-hill sweep, carried the Tribe into fifth place, its highest position in a month.

Another double-header with the Bears is scheduled tonight at 4:30 with Barry Lantieri and Bill Dufour working on the mound for the Indians. It will be "ladies night" and "kids night" with all children 14 years and under admitted free.

"Our pitching has been the key factor," commented Manager Andy Cohen in recounting the new 7-fund success.

Along with the fine pitching, the Indians have presented an impressive defense, committing only two errors in the nine games and being errorless in seven. But more important, the defense has gone beyond routine with Jose Valdivia in particular proving spectacular.

Bunning, Simmons to Start on Mound

By JOE REICHER, AP Sportswriter
ST. LOUIS—Casey Stengel may pin his hopes on his New York Yankees as he seeks to end his mid-summer jinx here tomorrow when the best of the American and National Leagues clash in the silver anniversary of the All-Star Game.

The grizzled Yankee pilot, 52, has had just that in his career. He has won 100 games in 10 seasons, but he has also lost 100 games in 10 seasons.

Each team has a wealth of reserves. The Americans have such power hitters as Roy Cramer of Washington, Charlie Maxwell of Detroit and Gus Triandos of Baltimore, but it would seem as no surprise if Stengel winds up with a "Yankee" pitcher.

Stengel today named rookie pitcher Jim Bunning of the Detroit Tigers as his starting pitcher. Walt Alton, Brooklyn manager, picked left-hander Curt Simmons of Philadelphia to start for the National League.

A capacity crowd of some 37,000 fans is expected to see the game, which will start at 8:30 p.m. (ET). Millions more will view it and hear it on radio, television (WFBM-TV), and in the streets.
