

THE YARNIN' BASKET

By W. F. Fox Jr.

MANAGER ANDY COHEN of the Indianapolis Indians has a new problem on his hands. He has received an urgent letter from a 13-year-old girl, Carol Loveman. She says Andy should have a clinic for girls. "Girls are just as interested in learning how to play as boys. The boys get everything," said Miss Loveman. "I'll have to do something about it," said Cohen.
