

scheduled for Monday.

Tribe President Ownie Bush, General Manager Ray Johnston and Manager Walker Cooper watched the Chicago White Sox-Los Angeles Dodger game in Miami last night. But they had little opportunity to see personnel expected to be optioned to the Indians.

The Indians are scheduled for their first exhibition game one week from tomorrow against Buffalo, winner of the International League pennant. Sixteen other games are on the schedule which will wind up April 12. The Indians will return to Indianapolis the night of April 13 and open the American Association season against Andy Cohen and the Denver Bears on Tuesday night, April 15.

Opening game tickets are now on sale at the Victory Field office. Box seats are $2 for adults and $1 for children. First eight rows of the grandstand are priced at $1.60 for adults and 60c for children. All other grandstand seats are $1.25 for adults and 25c for children.

The Indians' season ticket campaign, running ahead of the record '57 sale, requires the sale of two season seats to 232 business firms or individuals in the next month to reach its goal of $100,000.
