

Bears Pound Out 10-3 Win

By MAX GREENWALD

American Association writers picked Denver to win the pennant this season and last night the Bears showed Indianapolis they intend to prove the scribes were right.

Denver used four home runs to account for six tallies in a 10-3 verdict over the Tribe.

But, at that, the Indians out-hit Denver, 10 to nine, and also had the benefit of a homer—Jim Delsing's first of the season which cleared the right-field billboard in the first inning.

Indianapolis was in the game for six frames but the Bears made it a rout with eight runs in the last three stanzas.

In those three innings, Tribe pitching was subjected to a pummeling, especially from Dick Sanders, the Eastern League's most valuable player while at Binghamton last year.

Sanders slammed a triple off the top of the wall in right center for a 380-foot shot in the seventh, clouted a homer over the scoreboard clock in the eighth and another four-bagger over the left field billboard in the ninth.

OTHER Denver homers were swatted by Marv Throneberry and Norm Siebern, the latter's being hit with two on in the eighth.

The Association champion with 42 homers in 1956, Throneberry sent a high clout into Harding Street in the second. A walk to Curt Roberts, an infield out and a single by George Washington Wilson, who used to pester the Indians while at Minneapolis, gave the Bears a 2-1 edge in the third.

Arnie Atkins, Tribe starter, had a three-hitter and six strikeouts for six innings before Sanders unloaded his triple in the seventh. With one out and pitcher Zack Monroe at bat, the Bears were successful with the squeeze play.

Monroe's bunt went 10 feet in front of the plate and catcher John Romano went out for the ball. He lunged at Sanders but missed, the pitcher reaching first on the sacrifice. After Fritz Brickell singled, Southpaw Don Rudolph relieved Atkins.

WILSON WALKED to fill the bases and a run came over on Siebern's sacrifice fly. Zeke Bella also received a pass to load the sacks again and another walk to Throneberry forced over a run.

When Manager Andy Cohen came out to change pitchers, Bill DeFour replacing Rudolph, the new pilot received his first taste of the boo treatment from the stands. DuFour got John Blanchard to pop up to retire the side.

The Indians threatened to slice the deficit in their turn but settled for just one marker. Ted Beard doubled and stopped at third on Romano's single. A walk to Jose Valdivielso jammed the bases to bring a lefthander, Jack McMahan, in to relieve Monroe.

Beard scored on a wild pitch but Dick DiTusa fled to short right. Another walk to Charlie Williams loaded the cushions again but Vince Garcia fouled out.

Joe Dahlke was victim of the Sanders and Siebern wallops in the four-run eighth. The Tribe got one of these back on doubles by Sam Mele and Beard.

Sanders' homer in the ninth ended the scoring but the Indians were still trying in their turn.

There were two more walks and a single by Williams to load the bases with none out. But the veteran reliever, John Kucab, then took over and Garcia, Delsing and Ron Jackson couldn't get the ball out of the infield.

HIT-AND-RUN—The home stand will end tonight with Tony Ponce on the mound for the Indians and Mark Freeman for Denver.

Jackson doubled to left center in the fourth and Mele walked. The hit and run was called for on a 3-1 pitch to Romano but the catcher missed and Jackson was out at third.

Although he broke his bat in the eighth, Romano sent Siebern against the left-field bricks for his drive.

Monroe also was at Binghamton last year, posting a 16-7 mark.

Delsing's dribbler went between third and the mound in the third and Throneberry made a good pickup of Monroe's throw.
