HIT-AND-RUN — Indianapolis Manager Andy Cohen received a handsome portable radio set during the pre-game ceremonies. Cohen was popular while a Minneapolis infielder from 1932 until 1939.

The Millers didn't start two of the outfielders who were in the lineup at Indianapolis last week. Carlos Paula is suffering from a pulled rib muscle and Hank Thompson has a sore arm.

It has been a long time since weather has been so balmy for a Minneapolis opener. Temperature at gametime was 80 degrees.

Making his first Indianapolis start in place of the ailing Sam Mele, Dick Ditusa almost had his first homer in the fifth. But Felipe Alou leaned against the wire fence for the catch.
