

This is the first year the Indians have trained at Hollywood, Fla., using facilities of Chicago White Sox farm teams. Manager Cohen organizes daily routine.

Even Florida sunshine sometimes failed. Rain and hailstorm drive the players to the dugout.

General Manager Ray Johnston, 'Ownie' Bush, president, and Andy Cohen hold conference.

The Indianapolis Star Magazine

After the daily workout, the players relax at headquarters. . . . Ted Beard tries shuffleboard.

Midtown Motel, team headquarters, boasts a swimming pool, but, alas, the trainees have a strict "No Swimming" rule.

APRIL 28, 1957