

Indians Trounce St. Paul, 5-1

finger sliding into third Thursday at Minneapolis.

Don Demeter made another of his fancy catches, almost running into the fence in right center for Jim Delsing's drive in the first inning.

Shortstop Bob Lillis threw out all three Indians in the second.

Ron Jackson didn't have a chance at first base until the second out of the fourth.

Jose Valdivielso twice helped Szyczewski out of trouble with good fielding plays.
