

Attack Paced By Chrisley

By MAX GREENWALD

Barry Latman established a season high in strikeouts for Indianapolis pitchers last night as the Tribe conquered St. Paul, 7-3.

Latman fanned 10 batters and received 11-hit swatting support, three by Neil Chrisley.

The Indians got to Glenn McMin for five safeties in the first inning to build up a four-run margin.

Southpaw Chuck Templeton took up relief work with two out in the opening frame.

A bases-full sacrifice fly by Latman accounted for a run in the third, while Ron Jackson's long triple to right center in the sixth sent across the other two markers.

LATMAN allowed only five hits in eight innings with Granny Gladstone's first home run of the year, a clout over the left-field bricks, accounting for a tally in the second.

Gladstone singled over a run in the sixth and Jack Spears drove over one in the ninth as the Apostles raised their hit total to eight.

The series with St. Paul will close tonight when Railroad Night will be observed. The event is sponsored by the Railroad Community Committee and there will be a pre-game program beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

During the ceremonies, the Tribesmen will wear engineer caps and the managers—Andy Cohen of Indianapolis and Max Macon of the Saints—will be presented with gifts.

HIT-AND-RUN—St. Paul has been hit hard by injuries and is awaiting word about the condition of Don Demeter. The star outfielder pulled a muscle while starting to first base as he popped out in the fourth inning.

Third Baseman Dick Gray, leading the league in runs batted in, was confined last night by a virus ailment. Two catchers, Dixie Howell and Norm Sherry, also are on the hospital list.

Tribe pitcher Jim McDonald was not in uniform last night and was getting heat treatments from Trainer Tiny Tunis. The hurler, who tore a back muscle Monday night, will be examined Friday to determine if he can get back into action next week.

Last night's crowd was 1,878 to make the season total 32,794, as compared to 19,611 for the period in 1956.

RON WELLS pitched the last two innings for the Saints without permitting a baserunner. He was helped by a good play by Bob Lillis, who went back of second for Jose Valdivielso's bouncer.

Latman appeared in for a bad start when Spears singled and Dick Young walked. But the next three Saints couldn't get the ball out of the infield.

The Indians argued with Umpire Bob Stewart about a play at first base in the third, contending that Young's throw on Don Prohovich's sacrifice pulled Spears off the bag.

Orin Ray is umpiring in an Indianapolis series for the first time. He is from the Western League and is working in place of Dick Phillips, who is ill.
