

up pitching.

The Tribe had lost three in a row before last night's victory and ended a home stand in which it achieved only five triumphs in 14 tilts.

Indianapolis will start its 12-day road trip tonight with a double-header at Omaha. Manager Andy Cohen plans to use Cloyd Boyer, purchased from Sacramento, as one of his pitchers on tonight's bill.

Delsing and Thorpe, the two rightfielders, both turned in fine catches. Garcia went into right in the eighth for a spectacular effort on George Risley's loop.

There was a shower in the first which drove the patrons from the box seats briefly. The crowd numbered 1,855 and the attendance for the season is 47,741. That puts the Victory Field figures 2,192 behind 1956.
