Minneapolis, Minn. — The Indianapolis Indians bounced back from their losing ways yesterday afternoon by achieving their first doubleheader sweep of the season.

The double loss knocked Minneapolis out of first place.

Rain and 23 Tribe hits fell during the bill, with Bill DuFour and Barry Latman pitching the victories. The opener went to the Indians, 8-4, while Latman hurled his first American Association shutout in the seven-inning second game, 6-0, with a two-hit performance.

Ron Jackson clouted two home runs in the first contest, giving him 12 for the season. His five runs batted in during this tilt, plus one in the nightcap, sent his total to 54.

Jim Delsing rapped his sixth homer in the second game.

In pitching the first-game verdict, DuFour went the route for the first time since April 30.

Home runs accounted for three of the Minneapolis tallies. Bob Hofman's second of the year provided two runs in the fifth and Carlos Paula rapped No. 6—his only hit in the series—with the sacks empty in the sixth.

DuFour had a five-hitter going into the ninth before the Millers obtained their final marker on Orlando Cepeda's two-out double and a bloop single by Bill Taylor.

THE TRIBE righthander walked only one and there were just two Millers left on bases. The pass went to the first batter.

Jackson connected for a 430-foot homer to direct center off Southpaw Joe Margoneri, the Minneapolis starter, with one on in the third and solved Mike Blyzka, also with a man first baseman got his other on, in the eighth. The 6-7 RBI on a bases-full infield out in the fourth.

Two tallies in the second were unearned because of Wayne Terwilliger's ground-ball error, Ted Beard driving over one of the runs with a triple.

Wearing a splint on his left arm, Jose Valdivielso was at short for the first time since he was struck by a pitch in Omaha a week previously. He made a fine play in the sixth when he was in the dirt to throw out Ed Bressoud.

Neil Chrisley was in the starting lineup but had trouble running because of his groin injury.

In the second game, Latman issued no walks in defeating the Millers for the third time.

The young righthander didn't let a runner get to third. Two reached second — Jim Davenport, whose hot hopper skidded past third in the third inning, and Bressoud, who singled and moved up on an infield out.

Delsing's homer in the fourth started the scoring against Gordon Jones.

WITH TWO OUT in the sixth, Delsing singled, Jackson tripled, Sam Mele singled and John Romano doubled for three runs.

Fernando Rodriguez came to the mound in the seventh for his second appearance of the day and gave up two runs. He walked four with Mele's third hit dropping into left for a double.

After a double killing was executed with a close play on Valdivielso in the second, the Indians had some words with Umpire Dave Carabba. The debate became more bitter in the third after Manager Andy Cohen reached the coaching box. Then it was picked up in the Tribe dugout, Culminating in Charlie Williams being ousted.

Don Prohovich turned in the fielding feature of this game, falling along third base, then throwing out Terwilliger.
