

flied out.

PHIL PAINE, who was to become the winning pitcher, yielded singles to Beard and Garcia with two out in the 10th. But Malkmus threw out Jim Delsing. Malkmus had a fine night in the field along with three hits on rejoining Wichita after a brief sojourn with the parent Milwaukee club.

Tinney was rapped for a homer over the left-field fence by Holton in the fifth. It was the second of the year for the catcher, who was playing in right field because of injuries to Chick King and Bob Talbot.

DELSING backed against the fence to take away hits from Hanebrink in the fourth and Hazle in the eighth.

Coach Ted Wilks, who formerly had that post with the Indians, was in charge of the Braves because Manager Ben Geraghty is suffering from a stomach disorder.

Although the Tribe had just five hits, it might have taken the tilt on a clout over the left-field fence by Romano in the fourth. Umpire Bill Kinnamon called it foul despite vehement protest by Manager Andy Cohen.