

Flanigan's Relief Work Gives Tribe Even Break

Omaha, Neb.—Brilliant relief pitching by Tom Flanigan enabled the Indianapolis Indians to win the second game of last night's doubleheader from Omaha, 4-2.

In the seven-inning opener, Tony Ponce of the Tribe won the hardluck pitching sweepstakes. He was the loser for the second straight outing in a 1-0 tilt.

Flanigan relieved Cloyd Boyer with two out in the fifth and checked the Cardinals on three hits the rest of the way.

The southpaw achieved his strikeout peak of the season with nine whiffs.

The only tally he permitted came on a ninth-inning homer by Bob Thorpe.

INDIANAPOLIS got to Tom Cheney for two runs in the fifth, loading the bases on a walk, Ron Jackson's single and Sam Mele's safe bunt. A run scored after John Romano's sacrifice fly and another after Boyer's squeeze bunt.

Pablo Bernard's single in the sixth drove over another tally. His double in the ninth led to the final Tribe tally. Bernard had his best game since joining the Tribe, rapping three hits.

Milt Smith's fourth homer accounted for the only marker off Boyer.

For Ponce, the defeat especially was disheartening because the only run of the seven-inning contest was unearned. Not only unearned, but disputed.

Ponce allowed only three hits while his conquerer in the game played in the speedy time of 1:11, Bob Mabe, had a four-hitter.

The tally came in after the first Indianapolis error in six games. Thorpe bounced to short with one out in the sixth, and Jose Valdivielso's peg pulled Jackson away from the bag.

The first baseman stepped to the sack almost immediately. But Umpire George Popp ruled not in time as Manager Andy Cohen charged from the dugout to lead the tribe protest.

Billy Queen's second double of the tilt reached the right-field fence on the first bounce and Thorpe easily scored.

MABE HAD to retire the Indians with three on in the seventh to end Omaha's five-game losing streak. Jackson and Sam Hairston singled and Valdivielso received an intentional pass to fill the sacks.

Ponce's hopper between the mound and third was grabbed by Smith, who threw to Queen for the force at home. Charlie Williams grounded out to end the game.

Valdivielso tripled to right with two out in the fifth and Ponce walked. But Williams was a popup victim.
