

Denver Nips Tribesmen 4-3 In 10-Inning Tilt

By MAX GREENWALD

Denver last night completed a sweep of a three-game series with the Indianapolis Indians by taking a 4-3 decision in 10 innings. The Bears won nine of the 11 tilts at Victory Field this year.

The Tribe's loss was its fifth in succession — worst string of the season—while Denver sent its victory streak to six.

BARRY LATMAN was a yeoman job in spacing them over eight of the 10 frames. He walked only one as Indianapolis pitchers have issued just four passes in the last five games and one of these was intentional.

Latman had X-rays taken after the game on his right hand which was struck by a hard line drive off the bat of Curt Roberts in the seventh. Latman threw out the runner, then decided he would be able to stay in the tilt.

Roberts did considerable other damage to the Tribe, rapping out four hits and scoring twice.

He led off in the 10th with a double against the scoreboard in right center. George Wilson lined to right, Roberts moving to third.

Manager Andy Cohen then came to the mound as Norm Siebern, whose three hits last night enabled him to supplant the Tribe's Ron Jackson as American Association batting leader, was next at the plate.

Latman's instructions were to pitch Siebern high and tight but the Denver outfielder lashed an offering at his fists through the drawn-in infield. The single went into center and Roberts trotted in with the winning run.

Dick DiTusa helped send the tilt into extra sessions with a home run over the left field billboard in the fourth. Charlie Williams, who had walked, scored ahead of the wallop which was DiTusa's fourth Indianapolis homer and his first since rejoining the club July 25.

Jim Landis put a pretty bunt down the third-base line in the seventh, which Umpire John Mullen ruled fair after first signaling foul. Gene Host, southpaw who started for the Bears, made a motion to hold Landis on first but held the ball and was called for balking.

Vince Garcia doubled into the rightfield corner and it was a 3-3 tie.

The Indians had Host reeling in the first but failed to score. Landis walked and Garcia's bunt was so good it didn't even draw a throw. A wild pitch enabled the runners to advance, but Sam Mele fanned. Jackson walked to make it three on but Romano's hopper to third resulted in a double play.

Roberts and Siebern also teamed for Denver's first run in the opening frame. Roberts beat out a bunt and registered on Siebern's double off the leftfield bricks. It was Siebern's 34th two-bagger, high in the league.

In the fourth, Marv Throneberry singled and came around on Fritz Brickell's double to the leftfield wall.

John Blanchard gave the Bears their third tally when his 12th homer cleared the bricks at the right-field line.

Only one of his homers have been hit at the Denver park.

Host was excused after he had a 2-0 count on Jackson, first up in the eighth. Jack McMahan, another lefthander, allowed three singles—one to an inning—to blank the Indians in the last three cantos to be the winner. The Denver southpaws faced a complete lineup of righthanded batting Tribesmen.

HIT-AND-RUN — It will be Sahara Grotto Night tonight as Louisville arrives at Victory Field.

The total attendance last night was 4,819, of which 1,926 were paid. There were 895 women and 1,998 kids.

In addition to DiTusa's homer in the fourth, there were two near-misses. John Romano's swat went over the left billboard in foul territory, while Williams' poke hit the same sign.

There were more than the usual number of discussions with the umpire.

It was the Indians' sixth straight errorless game.

Minneapolis Sweeps Series

Louisville, Ky. (AP)—Minneapolis swept a two-game American Association baseball series from Louisville last night, winning the finale 4-2 in 11 innings.

Orlando Cepeda, a menace to the Colonels all season, led off with a double in the 11th to start the winning rally that beat Dave Benedict and gave the victory to veteran Max
