

WEATHER TODAY

Light Rain
High, 48; Low, 46
Yesterday
High, 49; Low, 40

VOL. 55. NO. 314

☆☆☆

TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 15, 1958

ME 8-2411

7 CENTS

THE INDIANAPOLIS STAR

"Where the spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty"—11 Cor. 3:17

TODAY'S CHUCKLE

He went to an agricultural college, and his classmate voted him "the boy most likely to sack seed."

PARADE ON MAIN STREET 3 Face Quiz In Cab Holdups, Slaying

Drivers To See Young Suspects In Police Lineup

Three holdup suspects will be viewed in the police lineup this morning by 11 cab drivers who have been robbed in recent months as detectives seek a new lead in the slaying of taxi driver John Bryan Campbell.

Police said they hope to get a "positive identification" that a gang of five youths may have committed the string of taxi robberies.

This would provide new clues to work with in tracking down the slayer of Campbell, who was shot to death in his cab March 24, police said.

THE THIRD MAN in the trio accused in the robbery of a Wake Up Service Station at 2010 Northwestern Avenue was apprehended yesterday.

He is Arthur Douglas, 18 years old, 2118 Indianapolis Avenue. He is slated to appear today in Municipal Court, Room 3, on a preliminary charge of robbery.

Julius R. Robbins Jr., 14, 1116 North Capitol Avenue, Apt. 30, is scheduled to appear on an identical charge April 18 in Court 4. He was apprehended Saturday as he left a movie and is being held under $7,500 bond.

Alonso Scott, 17, was picked up Sunday at his home, 1441 Highland Place after receiving a tip. Because he has a record of juvenile offenses, Sgt. William F. Raper of the Juvenile Aid Division said, Scott has been waived to Criminal Court on a robbery charge. He is being held under $7,500 bond.

Sgt. Raper, who heads the investigation, said the technique believed used by the three accused suspicion they

Haiti Aide Recall Due In Slaying

Washington (P-S)—A newly married Haitian diplomat who shot and killed his embassy's minister counselor earlier yesterday was expected to be called home today to answer his country's authorities for the slaying.

State Department and Haitian embassy officials consulted last night on recall "at the earliest possible moment" of Andre Toussaint, 39 years old, who slew Samuel Devieux, 52, reportedly after receiving orders to go back to his island nation.

All 11 cab holdups occurred in an area near West 25th Street and Northwestern Avenue where Campbell was shot while driving his taxi.

RAPER SAID Scott admitted owning a .32-caliber revolver and participating in the January 20 holdup of the Wake Up Station. The youth implicated Douglas and Robbins, Raper said.

—The three have denied any taxi holdups.

He said police believe the trio may be involved in other filling station holdups.

Investigation of the Campbell slaying has centered around a robbery motive. Police say his character and the area in which he was driving when he was killed indicate he may have tried to thwart a bandit.

His slaying is one of four in which the Indianapolis Star is offering a total of $20,000 in rewards — $5,000 for clues leading to the arrest and conviction of the killer in each case.

YOU MAY know something that can help solve his slaying and those of Theodore Turner, Mrs. Malvina Knitz and Dave Miller.

Write your clue on a letter with a number at the top and bottom. Tear off the bottom and mail the letter to:

Unsolved Murders
The City Editor
The Indianapolis Star
Indianapolis, Ind.

The number and the jagged edges of the letter pieces will identify you if your clue leads to a solution in one of the crimes. You need not sign your name.

All letters received by The Star will be turned over to police. If you need not sign your name.

To be eligible, your clue letter must be postmarked not later than midnight, May 15, 1958.

Internal Revenue Service agents already have sifted through thousands of early bird returns, including a most unusual one filed by a southern Indiana man.

THE TAXPAYER filed in his name and address, but the only other marking was a huge X scrawled over the remainder of the return.

He was pleading the Fifth Amendment in refusing to fill in the rest of the return. District Director Sterling M. Dietrich dispatched the return back to the man with a comment of his own.

"YOU'D BETTER read the 16th Amendment, too," was Dietrich's advice.

If the Constitution-conscious taxpayer isn't heard from by midnight, there'll be a knocking at his door.

INSIDE TODAY'S STAR

CONGRESS TO RULE SPENDING—Two senators declare Congress is to keep control over funds for defense spending. Page 12

TRUMAN OFFERS SOLUTION—Former President urges government spending, tax adjustment to ease recession. Page 4

WOMEN PRESS CHARGES—Folliott shot by police; women wife says he will not appear against her. Page 12

SUPPLY ROUTE CUT—Indonesian forces slash major route of supply for rebel army and threaten last lifeline to outside world. Page 13

Campbell. 25 Food. 9 Want Ads. 27-33

Comics. 24 Obituaries. 19 Weather. 11

Crossword. 13 Radio-TV. 15 Warner. 14

Puzzle. 13 Sports. 20-22 Women's

Editorial. 14 Theaters. 18 Pages 6, 8, 9

Latman Will Twirl

WALKER COOPER (left) GIVES BALL TO STARTING PITCHER HOOVER; Barry Latman Will Open Against Denver Tonight

Home Show Previews Indianapolis In 1975

What—33d Annual Indianapolis Home Show.
Where—Castle Building, Indiana State Fairgrounds.
When—Daily through April 20.
Hours—11 a.m. until 1:30 p.m.
Today's Theme—Home Builders' Day.

A big, breath-taking aerial preview of Indianapolis in 1975—a metropolis of towers and green suburbs crisscrossed by smooth, fast freeways—is grabbing top attention at the Indianapolis Home Show.

Visitors can glimpse their own homes as they appear from an altitude of 10,000 feet and even see the express superhighways they'll be riding along some day in futuristic cars.

A giant photomontage is the centerpiece of "The Indianapolis Tomorrow" display—a mosaic of aerial photomaps, 23 feet square.

Superimposed on the air view are the routes of the Federal interstate freeways to be built in the near future.

Home show visitors can see how near the new super roads will be to their homes and their jobs.

Some have been surprised to learn the routes are public information. "A lot of people have the idea those things are

6,672 'Owners,' Dignitaries To See Cooper Start

The Indianapolis Indians, backed by 6,672 stockholder-owners, open their American Association baseball schedule at 7:45 p.m. today against the Denver Bears after a 37-mile parade through the city.

Veteran big leaguer Walker Cooper, the Tribe's new manager, will make his debut in Indianapolis as a catcher, a job he perfected during his 18-year baseball career.

PRE-GAME ceremonies will get under way at Victory Field at 7:15 p.m.

An all-time high advance ticket sales predicts a sizable crowd. The Tribe front office has sold $84,000 in advance tickets, topping last year's record of $71,000.

Mayor Philip L. Bayt, urging the public to back the ball club, proclaimed today as Baseball Day.

A parade, sponsored by the Indians, will enter on a big, live bear—fully trained and valued at $1,000.

Dr. Marvin Sandorf of Indianapolis has offered to donate it to Andy Cohen, manager of the Denver Bear, if the club defeats the Indians tonight. Cohen is a former Indians manager.

A parade, sponsored by the Indianapolis Junior Chamber of Commerce, will begin the big day, leaving Victory Field at 1:30 a.m. and rolling along a one-hour, 45-minute route.

One Tribesman to a car, the police-escorted caravan will go west on 16th Street to Main Street in Speedway. From there it will go south on Main Street to 10th Street, east to English Avenue, south to Washington Street and east on Washington Street to Belmont Avenue.

IT WILL go south on Belmont Avenue to Morris Street, east on Morris Street to Kentucky Avenue, northeast to first ball to Mayor Bayt and Maryland Street, east to Illinois Street, north to New York Street and east to Meridian Street.

PLANNERS WANT it to be a breath of the past where families of the future can learn and have fun.

North, south, east and west—the city's future is envisioned in terms of land use, industrial zoning and population changes.

The exhibit was conceived "to publicize the good things that are happening in the Indianapolis area," Ronco E. Scovill, president of Greater Indianapolis Information Inc., said.

This association is sponsoring the display, with the cooperation of the Metropolitan Plan Committee and the Indianapolis Section of the Indiana Society of Architects.

John J. Conway, the village manager, said the orders for the increase came from the California office after the Lawrence Township assessed the village barracks at $704,340 in 1956.

Assessor R. T. Roberts said the assessment is the normal one-third of the cost of reproduction of $2,387,500 as revealed in the office of the Marion County Recorder.

But Conway maintained Turn to Page 16, Column 3

Increased tax assessment was the reason given by the taxpayers for the increase, in a letter sent each apartment dweller.

John J. Conway, the village manager, said the orders for the increase came from the California office after the Lawrence Township assessed the village barracks at $704,340 in 1956.

Assessor R. T. Roberts said the assessment is the normal one-third of the cost of reproduction of $2,387,500 as revealed in the office of the Marion County Recorder.

But Conway maintained Turn to Page 16, Column 3

Increased tax assessment was the reason given by the taxpayers for the increase, in a letter sent each apartment dweller.

John J. Conway, the village manager, said the orders for the increase came from the California office after the Lawrence Township assessed the village barracks at $704,340 in 1956.

Assessor R. T. Roberts said the assessment is the normal one-third of the cost of reproduction of $2,387,500 as revealed in the office of the Marion County Recorder.

But Conway maintained Turn to Page 16, Column 3

Opportunity Is Knocking

You won't want to miss the opportunity to see the new Indianapolis Star building. It's a real sight to see. The new building is a real sight to see. The new building is a real sight to see.

This week, through Sunday, April 20, the Indianapolis Star is having a special sale on its new building. It's a real sight to see. The new building is a real sight to see.

Found at the farm 17 miles southwest of the provincial capital of Pinar del Rio, 400 miles southwest of Havana, were one anti-aircraft, six boxes of dynamite and 50 boxes of rifle ammunition.

Also seized were a portable radio receiver and transmitter, other stocks of ammunition, communique propaganda leaflets.

The farm is near a chain of mountains known as the Sierra de Los Organos, where a few small rebel units have been hiding out and conducting guerrilla raids.

TROOPS SEIZED the landing yacht called El Corvo (The Crow). It was reported to have sailed secretly from an island in Mexico's Yucatan peninsula, little more than 100 miles from the western tip of Pinar del Rio.

The landing came while Castro's forces in easternmost Cuba carried their guerrilla warfare to within sight of the United States naval base at Guantanamo.

The rebels shot up Camanera, a sugar mill town of 6,000 people on the west side of Guantanamo Bay. There was no immediate report of casualties.