

Thomas Pitches Tribe Triumph

Denver (Spl.)—Carl Thomas spun a nifty six-hitter at the Denver Bears last night and his mates gave him robust plate support with 17 safeties as the Tribe won, 8-2.

A crowd of only 1,515, who sat through a drizzle in the early innings, saw the tilt.

Indianapolis, breaking its three-game losing streak, rallied for four runs in the seventh inning to settle the issue. Five singles, a sacrifice fly and a walk provided these tallies.

The Tribe moved to the front in the second inning. Ed Phillips drilled a shot through the middle, moved up when Buddy Carter was thrown out bunting for a hit and scored as Al Facchini sliced a single past third base. Thomas drew a pass and Ted Beard hit to the right field corner, scoring Facchini. Thomas was thrown out at the plate by 10 feet.

THE BEARS used Thomas' wildness in the third inning for one run. After Dick Sanders singled, Thomas walked George Wilson, John Blanchard and Gordon Windhorn to force in a run. He then got Zeke Bella on a grounder to Carter.

The Bears tied the score in the sixth with the help of errors by John Callison and Thomas. Callison bobbled Blanchard's hit and the latter scored when Thomas threw past third on Windhorn's bunt. Thomas then settled down to get Bella, Jim Pisoni and Curt Hardaway.

THE INDIANS shelled Ed Donnelly out in the seventh with a 4-run outburst. Beard started the rally with a hit off Gene Hassell's glove. Jim Snyder sacrificed and Callison beat out a high chopper to Sanders.

Callison went to second on a wild pitch and John Romano was purposely passed to load the bases. Joe Altobelli rapped a long single off the right center scoreboard for one run and Callison came home on Phillips' fly to Hassell in short center. Carter and Facchini singled for two more tallies.

Ben Flowers socked for two runs in the eighth. Beard legged an infield hit and Snyder scored him with a triple to the right field corner. Flowers uncorked a wild pitch for another run.

Carter rapped out four hits and Beard had three.

Denver Manager Andy Cohen said he hoped to have Curt Roberts back in the Denver lineup tonight. The little second baseman suffered a leg injury Friday.

American Association President Ed Doherty said he had denied the Indianapolis club's appeal for a hearing on Manager Walker Cooper's suspension. Doherty said there would be too much expense getting the principals involved together for a hearing.
