

Judges Study Beautify EP Contest Entries

Judges met Tuesday to decide the winners in the recent "Beauty With Cacti" contest which was jointly sponsored by Beautify El Paso Association and The El Paso Times.

Judges were Mrs. Gary Meyer of El Paso Zoological Society, Mrs. Joseph C. Baer, El Paso artist, and Mrs. H. W. Williams of the Convention and Tourist Bureau of El Paso Chamber of Commerce. They are deciding which El Paso businesses will be awarded first, second, and third prizes of $45, $35, and $20 respectively.

Southwestern landscaping was the theme of the contest, and businessmen were urged to use native plant material which grows on our Southwestern desert, or plants that do particularly well in semi-arid climate with a minimum of care and water.

Mrs. George Kistenmacher, vice-president of Beautify El Paso Association and chairman of the contest, said, "We are pleased with the interest that these businesses have shown in beautifying their premises. I think these improvements will prove to be an incentive for other businesses in El Paso to clean up and beautify, too!"

The two-month "Beautify With Cacti" campaign-contest began May 15 and ended July 15. Names of the winning businesses will be announced in the Sunday Times.

Andy Cohen is president of Beautify El Paso Association.
