

White To Discuss Range Problems With El Pasoans

Times Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Congressman Richard C. White, D-El Paso, has invited an ad-hoc advisory committee of 34 prominent El Pasoans to meet with him Saturday at 10 a.m., to discuss the disposal of some 8,000 acres of land on the Castner Range, Northeast of El Paso. The meeting will be held in the jury room of the Federal Court House. Congressman White said the advisory committee will choose its own chairman and determine its own course of action.

Those who have agreed to serve on the committee are: Bob Galbraith, manager KEMP TV; Bob Gourley, manager KEMP Radio; Ed Sleight, manager KROD TV; Irving N. Prell, manager KROD

Radio; Jim Phillips, manager KHEY Radio; Fred Hervey, president KSET Radio and publisher Southwest Sun Shopper. I. T. Cohen, manager KIZZ Radio, and Larry Daniels, president KINT Radio.

Dorrance D. Roderick, president, Newspaper Printing Corp.; Robert W. Lee, editor, El Paso Herald-Post; William I. Latham, editor, The El Paso Times; R. D. Bailey, president, El Paso Association of Builders; Mrs. Hollis Brown, president, Woman's Department, El Paso Chamber of Commerce; Emmett Larkin, president, El Paso Board of Realtors and publisher Northeast El Paso News. Ted Karam, president, El Paso Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. Joseph Leach, president, El Paso Chapter, Sierra Club.

Mrs. Ed White, president, Audubon Society of El Paso; Ross Swall, president, El Paso Hospital Council; Raymond H. Dwigans, chairman of the board, El Paso Hospital District; Kenneth R. Wheeler, acting president, Sunrise Merchants Association; Joe Weissmuller, vice president, Northeast El Paso Business and Professional Association; Sam Rutherford, president, Northgate Merchants Association; Luis Rosales, president, El Paso Central Labor Union, and Joe Wilson, president, Andress High School PTA.

Dr. Alfredo D. de los Santos Jr., president, El Paso Community College; Joe Foster, chairman of the board, El Paso Community College; Col. Russell Baker, liaison for Maj. Gen. Raymond L. Shoemaker, commanding general, Ft. Bliss; Andy Cohen, president, Beautify El Paso Association; Mrs. Ira O. Braly, president, El Paso Council of Garden Clubs; Raul Cuellar, editor El Continental, and Dr. H. E. Charles, superintendent, El Paso Independent School District.

Dr. J. M. Hanks, superintendent, Ysleta Independent School District; Andy Sanchez, president, LULAC Council 110, Northeast El Paso; Marshall Pennington, representing Dr. Joseph R. Smiley, president, University of Texas at El Paso.

Delay Set In EPNG Merger Case

Times Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON—The Senate Commerce Committee has postponed consideration of a bill which would permit El Paso Natural Gas Co. to continue in a merger with another firm, despite federal court orders to disban the merger, in keeping with anti-trust laws.

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee, announced a temporary postponement of consideration of S. 2404, "The Bill Introduced by 12 Western State Senators to Preserve the El Paso Natural Gas Pipeline System."

Chairman Magnuson stated: "As one of the co-sponsors of this bill, along with Senators Bennett, Bentsen, Bible, Church, Fannin, Goldwater, Hansen, Hatfield, Jordan, McGee and Montoya, I remain convinced that its passage is essential to maintain the integrity of the natural gas system of the West.

"I have heard no evidence to convince me that the substitution of a new monopoly to serve the needs of citizens of my state will mean anything but a threat to the stability