

Good Starts

By FRED LANDUCCI

Pittsburgh friends of Bobby Del Greco and Frank Thomas are elated over their fine starts with their new clubs—the Phils and Cubs, respectively . . . Del Greco cracked a homer and a single and scored the winning run, after walking, to help the Phils beat the Braves in the Phillies' home opener . . . Friends hope Del Greco has the same success in Philadelphia as Gene Freese, another former Pirate, who had his best season there last year after failing to win a regular position with the Bucs and Cards . . . Freese, of course, now is with the White Sox.

* * * *

Thomas cracked a three-run homer Wednesday to help the Bruins beat the Dodgers and then came back to give the Cubs their winning run against the Giants Thursday with a double, though it was tainted as a wind-blown hit in the Giants' Candlestick Park where the wind is giving the fielders fits.

* * * *

Many baseball observers feel the Phillies could have given Coach Andy Cohen, rated an astute baseball man, a chance to manage the Phils after Ed Sawyer resigned instead of plucking Gene Mauch from the minors.