

Ball Clubs to Fly 110,000 Miles

American Airlines will carry five clubs—Braves, Phillies, Pirates, Redlegs and Cardinals—across the continent on 150 charter flights for 110,000 air miles this summer.

Andy Cohen, Denver manager, was named by the Denver Men's and Boys' Fashion Guild as one of the area's best-dressed executives. You remember Andy. John McGraw of the Giants picked him up aeons ago in his frantic quest for a Jewish player. . . . Fried shrimp and French fried potatoes are on the menu at the concession stands in Chattanooga. . . . The number 8,222 on the uniforms of the Rochester Redwings represents the number of community stockholders in the club. . . . Frank Crosetti and Bill Skowron are greyhounds running at Apache Junction, Ariz. . . . Luke Easter has gone to contact lenses.