

Miner 9 Will Clash With Lobos

The University of Texas at El Paso baseball team will meet New Mexico University tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. in the first of a two game series at Dudley Field. The second game is slated for Saturday at the same time and place.

Marc Bombard or Harry Milner is expected to get the nod for the opener. Both had fine first outings last week with Milner winning a 3-0 decision and Bombard dropping a close 1-0 outing.

IF EITHER of the two starters get into trouble coach Andy Cohen has Jim Gregger-son, Don Wilson or Bill Diselhorst in relief.

Cohen's nine will have to get the wood on the ball if they expect to better their 2-2 present record. Last week they had early inning rallies, but couldn't materialize the runs.

Although the Miners will be meeting a Western athletic Conference team the game won't count on the conference record. But it will be a preview of things to come for both teams.
